

National Parks

BEYOND

the Nation

A Colloquium • September 14-17, 2011

Americans love national parks, but what are parks like in other countries? And what are the connections between national parks in the United States and national parks in the rest of the world? Join a special gathering of leading researchers as they discuss the international history of parks.

All Events Free and Open to the Public

Keynote: National Parks Beyond the Nation: Global Perspectives on the History of “America’s Best Idea”

Wednesday, September 14 • 7 p.m. • Lory Student Center, Grey Rock Room

Paul Sutter, Associate Professor of History, University of Colorado at Boulder

National Parks in a Global Context: Are They Truly “National?”

Thursday, September 15 • 7 p.m. • Ben Delatour Room, Fort Collins Main Library, 201 Peterson Street

Panelists: Mark Carey, University of Oregon; José Drummond, Universidade de Brasilia; Patrick Kupper, Institut für Geschichte (Zurich); Steve Rodriguez, UCLA; Mark Fiege, CSU (moderator)

National Parks on the Border: What Are the Challenges Where Nations Meet?

Friday, September 16 • Noon • Lory Student Center, Grey Rock Room

Panelists: Chris Conte, Utah State University; Dave Louter, Chief of Cultural Resources, NPS Pacific West Region; Alan MacEachern, University of Western Ontario; Karen Routledge, Parks Canada; Jared Orsi, CSU (moderator)

National Parks Around the World: Are They All the Same?

Saturday, September 17 • 7 p.m. • Beaver Meadows Visitor Center, Rocky Mountain National Park

Panelists: Jane Carruthers, University of South Africa; Ted Catton, University of Montana; Ann McGrath, Australian National University; Emily Wakild, Wake Forest University; Adrian Howkins, CSU (moderator)

Sponsored by the William E. Morgan Chair of Liberal Arts, the Public Lands History Center, and the CSU History Department

Colorado State University

BEYOND

National Parks
BEYOND
the Nation

BEYOND